Happy birthday, René Descartes!

(born March 31, 1596)

“Some years ago I was struck by the large number of falsehoods that I had accepted as true in my childhood, and by the highly doubtful nature of the whole edifice that I had subsequently based on them. I realized that it was necessary, once in the course of my life, to demolish everything completely and start again right from the foundations if I wanted to establish anything at all in the sciences that was stable and likely to last.” --- Meditations

My experience ...

Lessons I have learned ...

- ▶ Teaching isn't as much about style/technique as relationships

Lessons I have learned ...

- ▶ Teaching isn't as much about style/technique as relationships
 - ▶ Emerson and C.S. Lewis both express how relationships grow from shared interests
